Dulles Gives U2 Account to Senate Probers

Group Investigating Tieup of Spy Plane, Summit Explosion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, working behind heavily guarded closed doors, heard the inside story of the U2 spy plane today from the country's top espionage agent.

Allen W. Dulles, director of the supersecret Central Intelligence Agency, read a long prepared statement. But he provided no copies—not even for the committee members.

To Meet With Newsmen

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), committee chairman, left it solely up to Dulles whether anything he said would be made public. Fulbright promised to meet with newsmen at the luncheon recess.

The committee is looking into foreign policy implications of the spy plane crash with its pilot deep inside Russia May 1. After that incident Russia wrecked the May 16 summit conference and renewed an anti-American propaganda campaign.

President Eisenhower has pledged full cooperation with the inquiry. This and Dulles' refusal to agree to release even censored transcripts of his testimony were viewed widely as indicating Dulles planned some full answers to the senators' questions.

Fulbright and other committee members have indicated one major question they want answered is why, just before the scheduled start of the summit talks, this country took the calculated risk of sending the U2 aloft over the U.S.S.R.

Teamster Chief Goes on Trial

Presser Indicted for Obstructing Justice

CLEVELAND (AP) — William Presser, president of Teamsters Joint Council 41, goes on trial in federal court today on a charge of obstructing justice by mutilating and concealing union records subpoenaed by a Senate committee.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the committee, which was investigating racketeering in the labor-management field, will be here Wednesday to testify. Also testifying will be Walter S. Sheridan, a committee investigator.

Presser was indicted by a federal grand jury March 23. The indictment charges that he partially destroyed an invoice allegedly listing the names of eight public figures who were to receive $100 champagne buckets as Christmas presents from the Teamsters Union in 1955. It is alleged that the names were torn off by Presser.

The Teamsters official also is charged with concealing and withholding from the Senate committee an envelope inscribed "Christmas list." The envelope is alleged to have contained a memorandum listing names with various items of merchandise or amounts of money written next to them.

Maximum penalty on conviction could be five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

Four Women Killed In Greyhound Mishap

EVANSTON, Wyo. (AP)—Four women were killed and more than 20 other passengers were injured when a Greyhound bus smashed into the rear of a parked trailer truck Monday night.

"One of the women died in my arms as I pulled her out," Coroner Gilbert Bills said. "People were still screaming."

The accident occurred 28 miles east of Evanston, on U.S. 30 in southwestern Wyoming.

The Inter-State Motor Lines truck had stopped in the right lane of the four-lane highway and its driver had stepped out to assist a motorist whose car had stalled. Another driver was asleep in the cab.

In the darkness, the bus smashed into the rear of the truck but remained upright.

Neither of the truckers was reported injured.

The bus driver, Henry Everts, and two passengers were taken to an Evanston hospital. Four who were more seriously hurt were taken to Ogden and Salt Lake City, Utah, hospitals.

Several other passengers were treated for injuries at the Evanston hospital and released.

Russian Writer Pasternak Dies

Blasted by Reds for Novel, 'Dr. Zhivago'

MOSCOW (AP)—Boris Pasternak, 70-year-old Nobel prize-winning author of "Doctor Zhivago," died Monday night.

Friends said the noted poet, novelist and translator died in his sleep at his villa in Peredelkino, a writer's colony 20 miles outside Moscow.

Suffering from a heart ailment, lung cancer and stomach bleeding since May 1, he had been in a coma most of the time for several days.

A storm of Soviet criticism broke over Pasternak after he was named winner of the Nobel Prize for literature in 1958. The award is given for the entire body of an author's work, but the timing made it apparent that he was being cited primarily for "Doctor Zhivago," a quiet but powerful indictment of Communist methods and a strong assertion of individual dignity and Christian humanism.

The book, written in 1948-53, was first printed by an Italian publisher. It rapidly became an international bestseller, but the Soviet regime has never permitted its publication in the Soviet Union.

When he first heard he had been cited by the Swedish Nobel committee, Pasternak told reporters the prize "fills me with great joy and also gives me great moral support."

Soviet officials looked on the prize as an affront to the Soviet government. The storm of disapproval extended from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev down through the ranks of Soviet writers.

Pasternak was drummed out of the Union of Soviet Writers as a betrayer of the Socialist cause who had written "in the interests of fanning the cold war." There were demands that he be exiled.

The quiet writer, who had shunned politics, was deeply grieved by the controversy. In a personal appeal to Khrushchev, he renounced the Nobel Prize and said he was "bound to Russia by birth, life and work." He said leaving his country would be "tantamount to death."

After the funeral, Pasternak retreated into almost complete seclusion at his two-story home overlooking a rolling countryside.

3 Forfeit Bonds After Accidents

Three persons forfeited bonds in Mayor Dean Cranmer's traffic court over the weekend as the result of four accidents investigated by city police.

Forfeiting bonds were Clarence G. Jenkins, 22, of Deerfield, $25, for reckless operation; Max M. Gross, 48, of 1180 N. Ellsworth Ave., $10, failure to yield the right-of-way, and Joseph W. Duriga, 18, RD 1, Salem, $15, assured clear distance.

Jenkins was charged after an accident Monday at 10:45 p.m. in which his car ran into the rear of one driven by James C. Bumpus, 49, of Canton, while both cars were on W. State St., just west of Jennings.

Gross was charged with backing out of a driveway into a second car driven by William Lutsch, 36, of Cider Mill Rd. The accident occurred at 4:55 p.m. Sunday on Ellsworth Ave., at 12th St.

Duriga reportedly ran into the rear of a car driven by Glen W. Moreland, 35, of Carrollton, while both cars were traveling on N. Lincoln at E. 9th St.

In the only other accident reported, a car owned and driven by Kenwood E. Gray Sr., 52, of 711 N. Lincoln Ave., was damaged when he was forced off N. Lincoln Ave. and into a utility pole. The other car did not stop after the mishap at 2:50 a.m. today, he said.

to underscore the importance the United States places on the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization and his own feelings toward the area. The aftermath of the collapsed summit meeting in Paris also was up for close review.

Nixon Extends Greetings
The Eisenhower meeting overshadowed a ceremonial opening of the 6th session of the SEATO Council of Ministers. Vice President Richard M. Nixon was assigned the role of extending official greetings to the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand and the foreign ministers of Britain, France, the Philippines, Pakistan and Thailand. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter heads the council as chairman at the four-day meeting.

All eight nations are pledged to resist Communist aggression and subversion in the treaty area which includes Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia. Unlike NATO, the SEATO countries maintain no standing joint forces to repel an attack. The top council is expected to approve recommendations by its military advisers that both military planning and intelligence operations as well as joint maneuvers be stepped up as a defensive measure.

China May Overplay Hand
Of chief concern now is the possibility that Communist China may be emboldened by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's disruption of the summit meeting to overplay its hand in Southeast Asia.

A confidential report of SEATO military advisers who have labeled Southeast Asia a prime Chinese Communist target will be considered. Other reports will be made by SEATO Secretary-General Pote Sarasin and by the Council of Representatives who meet monthly in Bangkok.

Results of the session may well bring a step-up of military assistance sought by the Philippines, Pakistan and Thailand.

Six Airmen Are Killed In Ohio Crash

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP)—The worst traffic accident in the nation Memorial Day weekend—in terms of lives lost—occurred near this eastern Ohio city Monday when a tractor-trailer truck collided head-on with a car, killing all six car occupants.

The six airmen stationed at Clinton County (Ohio) Air Force Base, were traveling at a speed of about 100 m.p.h. on the wrong side of two-lane U. S. 40, the Highway Patrol reported.

The 1957-model coupe was telescoped into a length of four feet by the impact of the crash, the patrol said.

The car's wreckage had to be pried apart to get some of the victims out.

The six were identified as: James E. Altenburg, 21, Rt. 2, Gilroy, Calif.; Howard J. Clark, 20, Old Bridge, N. J.; Hector J. Gloro-Molina, 19, Bronx, N.Y.; Lewis Conover, 21, Rt. 2, Englewood, N.J.; James L. Chewkanes, 17, Atlantic City, N.J.; and Stanley T. Cheslock, 19, West Hazleton, Pa.

All were airmen third class except Clark, an airman second class. The truck driver, Clifford Townsend, 37, of Vandalia, Ohio, suffered contusions, abrasions and fractured ribs.

The early morning accident happened on a gradual curve in the highway about 17 miles east of Cambridge, just west of Fairview. The patrol said it was unable to determine who was driving the car and that it may never be found out. Military authorities theorized the airmen may have been taking turns driving.

Chewkanes and Altenburg had been in Atlantic City for the weekend visiting Chewkanes' family. They left Sunday in Altenburg's car to return to the air base and apparently picked up the other airmen on the way.

ROAD TOLL NEARS RECORD

Umbrellas Were In Style Here Memorial Day

Salem's observance of Memorial Day was an abbreviated service in the Junior High School Building, instead of the two ceremonies previously planned for Hope and Grandview Cemeteries.

Because of inclement weather, the parade, which formed at Broadway, marched only through the downtown area to the school.

This picture of the Veterans of Foreign Wars color guard and drill team was taken by Dave Rice, a high school student, while patriotic onlookers used umbrellas or huddled against E. State

St. buildings to keep out of the rain.

"Eternal Vigilance" was the theme of the principal address given by Stuart J. Satulko of Bay Village, past national commander of Amvets. The Rev. Harold Winn, pastor of the First Friends Church, served as chaplain.

Bob King delivered the "Gettysburg Address," while "Flanders Field" and "Response to Flanders Field" were given by Judy Schneider and Sally Snowball, respectively.

The Rev. T. G. S. Whitney, rector of the Church of Our Saviour, gave the closing prayer.

Turk Minister Leaps to Death

Hated Official Was Director of Police

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — The revolutionary government moved today to stamp out political activity in Turkey with scattered arrests.

The roundup followed the suicide of Namik Gedik, former interior minister who as director of police was one of the most hated members of ousted Premier Adnan Menderes' regime.

The arrests were believed directed against attempts to stir Menderes' old Democratic party back to life following last Friday's military coup.

After its first formal meeting Monday, the Provisional Cabinet announced it was banning "for the time being all party activities with the aim of preventing all discussions and struggles between brothers which might create angry incidents."

There were unconfirmed reports that some were hoping to organize an attempt to free Menderes.

Despite the arrests, Turkey was returning to normal life.

Gedik early Monday eluded a guard and plunged through a window to a paved courtyard four stories below his prison quarters in the army war college.

Turkey's new military rulers said Gedik had had a nervous breakdown.

He was considered one of Menderes' closest advisers. The bloodshed which attended repression of student demonstrations against Menderes was attributed to Gedik's harsh police methods.

Premier Menderes also was reported in a highly emotional state after his arrest Friday.

Ike Expected to Visit Philippines, Formosa

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Far Eastern tour including the Philippines and Formosa as well as Japan and South Korea is being planned by President Eisenhower next month.

A formal announcement of the itinerary today was expected to include also stops in Alaska and Hawaii and a brief visit to the big U.S. military base on Okinawa. The tour starts in Manila June 14.

The projected visits to Japan and South Korea had been announced earlier. Administration sources reported informally during the weekend the addition of the Philippines and Formosa.

Students Demonstrate Against Rhee's Flight

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Nearly 1,000 college students demonstrated in downtown Seoul today, demanding that Acting President Huh Chung resign because he helped ousted President Syngman Rhee leave the country.

It was the second day of student demonstrations protesting Rhee's flight to Hawaii for a rest. Monday 1,500 marched in Taegu demanding that Huh quit.

The student activity was reminiscent of the demonstrations in April that mushroomed into the uprising that toppled Rhee from power. So far, however, they were on a small scale and provoked no police interference.

Students carrying placards marched three miles from the campus of Tangook Buddhist University to the National Assembly building and massed in the square. They chanted attacks on the provisional government as the "remnant of a dictatorial regime" and demanded that it "assume responsibility for allowing the chief traitor of democracy to escape abroad."

The students also demanded dissolution of the Assembly, which they denounced as corrupt.

The 84-year-old former president and his Austrian-born wife arrived in Honolulu Sunday by plane after a hurried, secretive departure from Seoul. They said they would return to Korea after a rest with friends in Hawaii, but there was widespread speculation they would never come back.

The Assembly summoned Huh Monday to explain Rhee's flight. Members of the anti-Rhee Democratic party accused the acting president of letting his predecessor escape criminal responsibility for wrongs done by his government.

Huh termed Rhee an "unfortunate old man" and said he let him go because his presence in the country could provide a rallying point for counter-revolutionaries. He said the government can ask the United States to send Rhee back whenever his presence is needed for the investigation into irregularities charged to his regime.

Witnesses told of trying desperately to rescue moaning injured from under the aluminum pipes, while others on the ground and on other nearby towers went on drinking beer and munching fried chicken, apparently concerned mainly with the start of the race.

Ohio's highway death toll this Memorial Day weekend was the highest in the nation.

Exceeding pre-holiday estimates, it brought this perplexing comment from a state official:

"Why? What's the answer?"

The official, James W. Shocknessy, chairman of the Ohio Turnpike Commission, expressed shock at the highway slaughter, but happily reported that not one fatality occurred on the turnpike during the 78-hour period.

But elsewhere in the state, motorists went on a death binge.

When the holiday weekend was over, at midnight Monday, Ohio counted at least 27 dead in traffic accidents, plus two drownings.

Council May Borrow to Meet Payroll

A special meeting of city council has been called for tonight to consider borrowing $2,000 to meet the city's general fund payroll which should have been met today.

Mayor Dean Cranmer said today the $2,000 would be sufficient to make up the difference between available monies and the amount needed to pay all city employees except officials. The late payday should be met Wednesday.

Last week, City Auditor Helen Coyne said there was not sufficient monies in fund to meet the general fund's payroll of $9,560.87.

The absence of a payday today effected some 71 employees. These included firemen, police men, street lighting crews, health department personnel, the city hall custodian, city clerk, stenographer. After the loan is secured those who will not have been paid include the mayor, auditor, solicitor, and members of Council. These salaries are to be paid as money becomes available.

The count of traffic deaths during the three-day Memorial Day weekend inched higher today, threatening to match or exceed the record 371 fatalities reported during the three-day 1958 Memorial holiday.

Reports of deaths resulting from traffic crashes that occurred before midnight Monday still were trickling in.

District Is Spared Serious Accidents

Highways in the Salem area were reasonably safe over the Memorial Day weekend, with the State Highway Patrol posts at Lisbon and Canfield reporting only one minor accident each since Sunday afternoon.

At 3 p.m. Monday, Arthur Felger, 22, of Conway, Pa., was charged with reckless operation after his car missed a turn on Columbiana County Road 433, a mile and a half west of East Palestine, and turned over. He was not injured.

Considerable damage was inflicted on two cars Sunday at 5:30 p.m. when drivers Paul Milone, 29, of Warren, and Anthony Florenza, 20, RD 1, Canfield collided at Rts. 45 and 224 at Ellsworth. There were no injuries.

near Evanston, Wyo. At least 20 other passengers on the bus were injured.

One grim record already was set, this for all types of accidental deaths in the country during the 78-hour period. The record for violent deaths attributed to the holiday observance was 504 in 1947. The categories listed were deaths in traffic, boating, by drowning and from miscellaneous causes.

The council had issued several bulletins daily during the weekend tabulating that started at 6 p.m. local time Friday and ended last midnight.

A final appeal Monday urged motorists "to exert extreme care and patience" on homeward bound drives.

Before the holiday got underway, the council had estimated 375 persons would die in traffic accidents this weekend.

The Associated Press conducted a survey for comparative purposes during a 78-hour period over a weekend in mid-May. It showed 330 persons died in traffic accidents.

During the 1959 Memorial Day observance, which was two days, 310 persons died in traffic accidents.

Salem Man Hurt As Train Hits Car

A 45-year-old Salem man was treated at Central Clinic today for possible fractured ribs and abrasions suffered when his car was struck by a Pennsylvania Railroad train at the Ellsworth - Station Rd. crossing in Mahoning County.

State Patrolmen at Canfield said the injured man, Eugene Myers, of 1647 N. Ellsworth Ave., told them he did not see or hear the train before it hit his 1960 model car. The rear and entire left side of the auto were damaged.

The crossing located about a half mile north of Ellsworth is not equipped with crossing signals.

The accident occurred at 6:45 a.m. while Myers was northwest-bound on the county road.

S. Africa: The War of the Races

Whites Determined to Fight to End Against Sharing Rule With Negroes

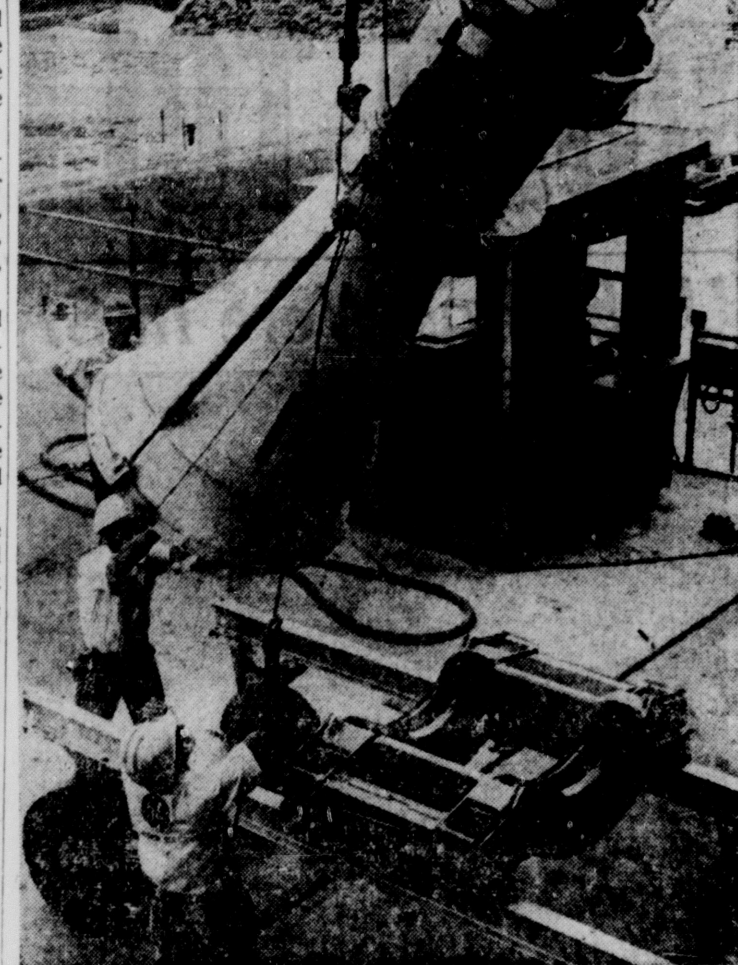

EDITOR'S NOTE: Riots, bloodshed, and an assassination attempt on Prime Minister Verwoerd have focused world attention on South Africa. In this article, the first of three, an Associated Press reporter who toured the troubled land describes its atmosphere of siege and the human toll of continuing racial conflict.

By SAUL PETT

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—This may be the Armageddon of the white man in Africa. Here in the Union of South Africa, the most highly developed, most prosperous nation on the continent, the white man is strong, est, most deeply entrenched and outnumbered by blacks only three to one.

here, particularly the Afrikaner or man of Dutch extraction, is ready to fight to the end rather than share his rule or be ruled by the black man. To a visitor, it is a strange, tortured country full of natural beauty and human ugliness. But the broad sweep of the veld, the clear, vivid air of the high interior, the lush rolling hills and graceful blue gum trees along the Indian Ocean coast do not quite make up for the oppressive atmosphere. This is a melting pot, where the human ingredients never melted. A land of mutual distrust, where the Afrikaner still resents the Englishman (who beat him in a war 60 years ago), and both groups of whites distrust the black man, the mixed breeds and the Indians, and all the nonwhite groups dislike each other, and the white man's dog barks only at the natives. In South Africa, there is a ghetto for almost everyone, real or imagined, voluntary or enforced, for rich, for poor, for Afrikaner, for Englishman, for black, brown, tan and off-white. This is a country of tension and fear, where some whites are selling out and moving abroad, where many (especially the English) are talking about leaving, where property values have tumbled because the white man isn't buying and the black man can't. This is a taut country in a state of emergency, where armored cars stand ready to move out against renewed rioting, where political prisoners remain in jail without charge, where a world-famous novelist, Alan Paton, feels he must choose his words carefully lest he be arrested for undefined subversion.

FAR-DARTING NOSE CONE — This is a Mark III nose cone, the usual payload of an Atlas missile, which is the only operational ICBM in the U.S. arsenal. A one-and-a-half-ton cone of this type was hurled 9,000 miles in 52½ minutes by an Atlas May 20. Traveling in a 1,000-mile-high trajectory, the cone spanned two oceans — the North and South Atlantic — and dropped into a third — the Indian Ocean, 500 miles northeast of the Prince Edward islands. It was covered with a material which burns and vaporizes during re-entry into the earth's atmosphere, thus dissipating heat and keeping interior cool.

Warns of Attacks on Foreign Airfields

Red Threat Seen as Effort To Keep Missile Bases Secret

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's threat to attack any foreign airfield used by a plane flying over her territory was seen here today as part of a determined effort to keep secret her relocation of missile bases.

Some State Department experts agreed, but they assessed the speech largely as an unusually blunt warning designed to scare allies who permit U.S. use of airfields in their countries.

American analysts of Soviet affairs said that is the significance of a speech Monday by Marshal Rodion Malinovsky at a Kremlin meeting of Communist workers. It follows similar warnings by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev against permitting use of the bases by spy planes.

The Soviet Union long has sought to force abandonment of U.S. military bases surrounding her borders, and has stepped up the campaign since the downing of a U2 spy plane in the Soviet Union May 1.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 12-weeks and telephones almost every night "just to talk."

He's the conservative type and has made quite a point of being just a "poor struggling teacher."

I haven't told this to a soul, Ann, but my father left me a legacy of $18,000 in 1957. On my uncle's advice I invested it in good stocks and it's now worth about $30,000.

Should I tell this fellow about the money? I want very much to insure this romance against fizzling out. Please use that smart head of yours and give me some solid advice.—EAGER.

Dear Eager: Could you be happily married to a man if you suspected he married you for money? Well—there's your answer.

If you don't want the loot to be a consideration, then forget about it until he expresses a permanent interest in YOU.

Three weeks isn't very long, professor catches a premature whiff of orange blossoms in the air he may be scared off. Continue to give him the pleasure of chasing you—until you catch him.

From Squaresville

Dear Ann: I bought my boy friend two lovely white shirts for his birthday. I went to the trouble of learning his collar and sleeve size from his roommate. Then I had his initials put on the pocket. When my boy friend opened the box he said, "What did you do THAT for? You've ruined the shirts. Then he got a razor blade and carefully cut the initials off. I felt very hurt but said nothing. Tell me, Ann, is it poor taste to have initials embroidered on a man's shirt?—NOWHERE.

Dear Nowhere: Initials on a man's shirt add an expensive and elegant touch—if they don't belt you in the eye.

Small, neat letters (about a quarter of an inch high) on the sleeve or pocket is not cornball. It's smart. In my opinion your boy friend is from Squaresville.

Foolish Fear

Dear Ann: I'm 24 and have two small children. I'm scared to death to be in the house alone at night. Even when my husband leaves for an hour or two I'm in a panic until he returns. This fear is being transmitted to my young children. My little boy asked last night, "Why are you so afraid, Mommy?" I told him there was nothing to be afraid of and he replied, "I'm afraid, too."

What can I do to overcome this foolish fear?—SCARED STIFF.

Dear Scared: Have additional locks put on both doors. Check the windows and make sure all the locks work. The psychological effects will be good. Then turn on the lights when you're alone in the house. Keep the phone number of your next-door neighbor handy. If someone should hammer the lock off and break in (MOST unlikely) you'd have prompt assistance. If this doesn't work, you need professional help. The fear is rooted elsewhere.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, Box 489, Dept. B, Radio City Station, New York 19, N.Y.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN, M.D.

Vacation Should Be Time of Rest

The concept of a 6-day work week with a rest on the seventh day comes to us from Genesis.

So far as I am aware, neither Old nor New Testament makes mention of an annual period during which the worker vacates his work.

Nevertheless, this happy and necessary custom is approved and welcomed in every enlightened community.

As a physician, I am greatly disturbed by the injustices and hardships that arise from misuse of the vacation period.

By directing your attention to some of these, I wondered if I might not help you avoid or correct any that might arise in your household.

TO BEGIN, I want to state two general principles, neither of which will win the unanimous approval of the vast majority of families.

The first is that, for the worker and wage earner, the vacation is essentially a brief period of convalescence. It is intended primarily to give the individual an opportunity to recover from the wear and tear of continuous toil.

THE SECOND, that the vacationing individual should plan the brief period of convalescence so that it does not add to the wear and tear imposed on others in the household.

Perhaps my meaning will become clearer if I personalize what I am trying to convey. Let's start with our first principle.

We'll suppose that the vacationing individual is the father, who is entitled to be away from his job or desk for two or three weeks with pay. The best way for the wage earner to recover from the wear and tear of 49 or 50 weeks of work is a matter of individual choice.

My plea to each family group, particularly in its self-interest, is:

IF DAD WANTS to loaf, let him. If he wants to indulge in some sort of activity, let him fish, hunt, swim, golf, or whatever to his heart's content.

And if he wants to be alone or if he prefers to play with his pals, for Heaven's sake don't tag along with the kids.

When he returns from whatever it is he enjoys, he'll love and appreciate you and them all the more.

AND WHEN the couple of weeks pass all too quickly into history, he'll tackle whatever it is he has to do with redoubled vim, vigor and vitality.

So much for my first principles of vacationing and benefits they hold for fellow males.

Next: The second general principles and its potential boons for the S.P.C.W.M. (Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Wives and Mothers).

Teen-Agers Battle Police In London

Trio Schedules Day In Los Angeles

Symington, Johnson, Kennedy Compete for California Vote

By The Associated Press
California Democrats will see three of a kind today: a trio of senators who want to be president.

Sens. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, and John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts have scheduled a full day in Los Angeles, trying to attract support for the Democratic nomination.

In the morning the three plan hour-long news conferences, one after another.

During the day, the three meet privately with members of the delegation that probably will go to the national convention. The state, pledged to cast the state's 81 votes for Gov. Edmund G. Brown as a favorite son, has minor opposition in California's June 7 primary.

In the evening, Symington, Johnson and Kennedy address 1,200 Democrats at a $100-a-plate dinner in honor of Gov. Brown.

Republicans plan a rival attraction with a "get out the vote" dinner. It will feature a taped message from Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the leading candidate for the Republican nomination.

Symington, at a dinner in Buena Park, Calif., Monday night, outlined a program to aid workers forced out of their jobs by automation.

Johnson met with the Nevada delegation in Reno Monday. The Nevadans, who will have 15 votes at the convention, favor Kennedy over Johnson.

At a news conference, the Texan was asked his reaction to the delegation's slight edge for Kennedy.

"I am pleased with my position in Nevada and the rest of the country," Johnson replied.

A Republican primary battle in California drew some comment from Nixon's press secretary, Herbert Klein. The battle involves Nixon's former campaign manager, Murray Chotiner.

Chotiner was a Nixon strategist until 1956, when reports circulated that he had used his friendship with the vice president to help some law clients who wanted government business.

A Senate subcommittee asked Chotiner to testify about the matter but it never filed a report.

Chotiner is opposed by Alphonzo Bell in the contest for Republican nomination for Congress. Klein said Nixon would take no part.

Asked whom Nixon favored, Klein replied: "The vice president will support with enthusiasm whichever candidate the Republican voters in the 16th Congressional District select."

Alabama Democrats vote today in a run-off primary for presidential electors. Ten seats are at stake in a battle between States Rights and loyalists.

The States Rights say they would withhold their votes from the national Democratic party candidate if they considered him unfriendly to the South.

Alabama has 11 electoral votes, and Democrats invariably win the right to cast them in the presidential election. In the first primary four weeks ago, a States Righter won one of the elector posts for the Democratic party.

No candidate won a majority in the other ten contests, making today's runoff necessary.

In Texas, Republicans held their state convention Monday and cheered when former National Committeeman Jack Porter told them, that the Soviets want a Democratic president because the Democrats' "record shows they are easy to deal with."

"The people of America are not ready to let a Bolshevik dictator tell them who to elect president of the United States," Porter said.

The convention nominated John G. Tower, a professor at Midwestern University, to oppose Sen. Johnson in the Senate race this November.

William M. Steger was nominated to oppose Gov. Price Daniel in his bid for a third term.

In North Carolina, a Democratic runoff will be held June 25 in the race for governor. Terry Sanford, who led a field of four in last Saturday's first primary, will be challenged by I. Beverly Lake, who came in second, 83,000 votes behind.

Sanford favors a moderate stand on the segregation issue and calls for heavy increases in spending for schools. Lake is a strong segregationist and a financial conservative.

Nobel Prize Saved Pasternak's Life, Soviet Writer Confided

Editor's Note—Gustav Svensson, formerly assigned to the Moscow staff of The Associated Press and fluent in Russian, interviewed Boris Pasternak in 1958 at the height of the storm over his Nobel Prize. The following story of the interview is the part that could not be printed while Pasternak was alive. He talked freely to friends and reporters but suggested, for the sake of his personal safety, that discretion be used in what they made public.

By GUSTAV SVENSSON

GENEVA (AP)—Boris Pasternak told me, in the middle of the storm over "Doctor Zhivago", that he believed the Nobel Prize had saved his life.

He also said that despite statements made in his name, he had never renounced the Nobel award.

Pointing to his head and heart, Pasternak said: "It is in here and in there and will remain there forever."

Two days before King Gustaf VI of Sweden, was to present the Nobel awards to the winners in Stockholm, Pasternak asked me, as a Swede, to tell the Swedish Academy that he still claimed the prize although he was unable to go to Sweden to receive it in person.

"I could send somebody to pick up the prize money for me," he said.

He added jokingly: "I could not ask our Stockholm ambassador to do it for me because that would be the summit of duplicity."

Duplicity and the breakdown of personal integrity in a Communist society are the main themes in Pasternak's novel, which the Soviet government has not allowed to be published there.

The Nobel Committee said that it would inscribe Pasternak as the 1958 winner but that the $41,420 prize money would return to the fund because he had declined it.

I saw Pasternak on Dec. 8, 1958, six weeks after the academy announced it had selected him for the first literary Nobel Prize ever awarded to a Soviet Russian. Five weeks earlier, the Communist party newspaper Pravda had published a letter in Pasternak's name declining the award.

The storm against the author was still raging at full blast throughout all Soviet propaganda media.

He was very isolated and regarded Western newsmen as his "only friends and remaining links with the world."

I asked him if the prize brought him all his troubles, and if his position was being aggravated by what was written about him in the Western press.

This he denied vehemently. "I owe my life to these international protests," he said.

"One 'Doctor Zhivago' was published abroad, I had it coming to me. But I had to write that book and I had to publish it where it could be published. I put all I had of strength and ability as a writer into the book and there is nothing I would change.

"The Nobel Prize was of tremendous help. To me it meant the support of the world. This saved me from the worst. They could not get rid of me."

Pasternak believed at the time that the storm would pass over in a month. Most of it did. But the time also was to come when he was virtually incommunicado, although the Soviet press had dropped all mention of him months earlier.

Friends visiting his country home were handed a slip of paper by a servant. The note said in English and Russian:

"I can receive nobody. There can be no preferences. I am right sorry. Yours truly, Boris Pasternak."

IT'S A FACT!

You can heat more than 4 homes with GAS for the same price that you can heat only 1 home with electricity

Advertisements on electric home heating would have you believe that electric resistance heating is inexpensive.

The fact is that electricity costs over four times as much as Gas to heat an identical home. A recent study of a typical house in this area indicated the annual heating cost with Gas to be $116.87. To heat the identical house by the electric resistance method would cost about $492.00 a year.

In addition to the economy of heating with Gas, you get these other advantages with Gas.

• YOUR HOME IS MORE COMFORTABLE
Gas Heat provides free circulation of air to keep all parts of your home comfortable.

• YOUR HOME IS MORE HEALTHFUL
At reasonable cost, Gas Heat can put more heated, healthful, fresh air in your home for your family. But that is not all. To keep electric heating costs from going even higher, homes must be made so "tight" they are virtually "fresh air proof." The result... stale, dead air and stuffy rooms.

• YOUR HOME IS ALWAYS WARM IN WINTER
Gas Heat is always dependable. It seldom fails you during wind storms, hail, sleet storms, or heavy snow.

• YOUR HOME IS CLEAN
Filtered Gas Heat helps eliminate stale air in your home. There is less deposit of cooking vapors on walls, windows, drapes, and furnishings.

• YOUR HOME IS SAFE
Modern Gas Furnaces are fully equipped with safety controls approved by safety engineers.

• YOUR HOME IS BETTER EQUIPPED FOR FUTURE AIR CONDITIONING
With forced air Gas Heat, you already have duct work that converts easily for air conditioning.

*This comparison is based on a typical home using 140,000 cubic feet of Gas annually for heating.

BE MODERN, BE THRIFTY, BE WISE. ALWAYS INSIST ON GAS HEAT FOR YOUR HOME,

Rathmann Wins At Indianapolis After Duel With Ward

13 Seconds Victory Margin

2 Killed, 70 Hurt As Stand Collapses

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Jim Rathmann will move to the head of the table tonight at the annual victory dinner for 500-mile race contenders, after 10 years of sitting below the winner.

He may pick up a check for well over $100,000, depending on distribution of special prizes by accessory and petroleum products companies.

Just how much he won, the baby-faced, balding Miami veteran won't know until the dinner. But he does know he won it the hard way in a nerve-racking duel with Rodger Ward, last year's winner, who finished less than 13 seconds behind.

The Ward-Rathmann rivalry has become a sports classic. Early last season, Ward chased Rathmann to a world's record speed of 170.262 miles an hour on the high-banked Daytona International Speedway.

In a see-saw battle without precedent on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Rathmann pulled ahead Monday about eight miles from the end and finished at a record speed of 138.777 miles an hour. Ward set the old record of 135.857 last year.

Ward had to slacken near the end because of a right front tire so badly worn he feared it would burst. Rathmann had chewed up his right rear tire so badly that Chick Hirschman, his chief mechanic, said it wouldn't have lasted over two more laps.

Ward, starting his 10th straight 500, forced Rathmann to run over 144 miles an hour late in the race—faster than many of the 33 starters had run in qualifications.

Ward and Rathmann made their last pit stop for fuel and tires at the same time, on the 151st lap, three-fourths of the way.

Ward went into the pits leading by a few feet and went out with Rathmann charging at his tail pipe. They swapped the lead five times after that, with Ward having a little edge on straightaway speed and Rathmann a thin advantage on the turns.

Veteran Eddie Russo wore out a tire and crashed into the southeast retaining wall in the only bad accident of the race. He was hospitalized in critical condition.

The worst tragedy of the 44th 500 occurred in the infield, where scaffolding collapsed on a temporary bleacher erected by fans, killing two persons and injuring over 70.

The first seven finishers all broke Ward's year-old record. Officials were uncertain Monday night whether Paul Goldsmith, St. Clair Shores, Mich., or Don Branson, Champaign, Ill., finished third.

Unofficially, Eddie Johnson, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, was fifth; Johnny Thomson, Boyertown, Pa., sixth; rookie Lloyd Ruby, Houston, Tex., seventh; Bob Veith, Oakland, Calif., eighth; Bud Tingstad, Dayton, Ohio, ninth, and Bob Christie, Grants Pass, Ore., 10th.

Backswing

By JIMMY DEMARET

The knees, hips, hands and shoulders enter a forward press together and go from there as a unit into the backswing.

As the pivot begins, the clubhead is kept as low as possible to the ground. The hips, shoulders, hands and clubhead maintain the same angle relative to the intended line of flight. The knees stay flexed. The left knee begins to give in to the pivot to permit an easy turn.

As the arc heads upward and the hands and clubhead reach a waist-high position, the right elbow turns down, the right arm folds under and the left remains comfortably straight as the wrists begin to cock.

The wrists have finished cocking at the completion of the backswing. As shown in the accompanying illustration and as pointed out in my Golf-To-Music Lessons album, the club is close to being parallel to the ground. The head remains steady. The eyes are on the ball.

Close to parallel to the ground

The knees remain flexed.

Braves Jolted 8-3 by Pirates

Giants, Cubs Split; Cards Rip Dodgers

By The Associated Press
Is it the 12 postponements that have Milwaukee's Braves dragging in the National League race? Or is it Pittsburgh?

Idleness because of rain, cold and fog has been a real snafu for Braves' pitching. But those Pirates haven't helped it either.

Pittsburgh beat the fourth-place Braves for the seventh time in nine meetings this season with an 8-3 romp before rain cut their scheduled Memorial Day doubleheader in half. That was enough, however, to break a first-place tie with San Francisco, and the Pirates did it by beating Warren Spahn (2-2) for the second time.

Last season when the Bucs managed to beat the Braves only seven times all year, Spahn was 5-0 against the Pirates.

San Francisco slipped to second place, by a half game, in a split with the Chicago Cubs, winning 5-4 after a 2-1 loss. Cincinnati won the opener at Philadelphia 5-4 in 10 innings, but the last-place Phillies then ended their losing string at seven with a 6-1 victory. St. Louis clobbered Los Angeles 15-3 in the only night game, with Bill White driving in six runs.

In the American League, Baltimore split with Boston, winning 7-5 before a 12-3 defeat, and came off with a one-game lead over second-place Cleveland. The Indians swept Chicago 4-1 and 9-4, dropping the White Sox to fourth.

New York defeated Washington 3-2 after a 2-1 loss, and Kansas City took a pair from Detroit, 7-6 in 11 innings and 8-2.

Southpaw Harvey Haddix (3-1), who was winless against Milwaukee for three seasons, made it three in a row this year against the Braves. He had them blanked until the ninth, when Roy Face came on and saved it. Gino Cimoli drove in four runs for the Bucs with a triple, double and single.

San Francisco salvaged the split with an unearned run in the ninth after the Cubs had tied it 4-4 on home runs by Jim Hegan, just back from retirement, and Bob Will. Willie Mays socked a two-run homer and scored the Giants' last three runs. Stu Miller (2-1) was the winner with Seth Morehead (0-3) the loser, both in relief. The Cubs won the opener with Earl Averill driving in both runs.

Two-out singles by Vada Pinson and Gus Bell put away the opener for the Reds and reliever Jim Brosnan (3-0) against the Phils' Gene Conley (2-3). The Phils then tagged three home runs in a five-run nightcap fifth that chased Don Newcombe (3-2), John Buzhardt (1-3) won it.

White hammered across four of the Cards' runs with a pair of homers. He also doubled and singled in the 16th outburst against Don Drysdale (4-5) and four relievers. Ernie Broglio (2-1) gave up just four hits, one Duke Snider's third home run in two days.

Class A Title Game Postponed to June 11
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A rain-soaked diamond forced cancellation of the Class A championship baseball game between Liberty Union and Convoy - Union high schools on Memorial Day, so the issue won't be decided until at least June 11.

Officials set the postponement date that far ahead because of class trips and other end-of-the-school-year activities for youngsters at both schools.

The teams were to have played Monday at Ohio State University's varsity diamond, but met over night rains and prediction of more rain. The June 11 game will be played at Ohio State at 2 p.m. EST. Liberty Union has a 13-0 record, and Convoy-Union is 14-2.

Cincinnati Elder already has won the Class AA baseball title—for the third straight year—with a 4-3 win over Lima Senior High last Saturday.

Hitting — Bill White, Cardinals, drove in six runs with two homers, a double and a single in 15-3 romp over the Dodgers.

Pitching — John Buzhardt, Phils, beat Reds 6-1 with a six-hitter, losing his shutout in the ninth.

WINS AT LEBANON
LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—It paid to start slowly in the featured race at Lebanon Raceway Monday night because the early laggards finished at the head of the field, led by Jetina.

George Wilkin of Hillsboro, owner-driver, had Jetina in fourth place through most of the race before the 3-year-old sidwheeler stepped up the pace and won in 2:10 3-5, paying $13.

Less than two lengths behind was Sir Sampson, and Grand Pearl Volo was third—both slow to start like Jetina.

A holiday crowd of 1,935 bet $57,033 at the mutual windows for the night.

A's Win Pair; Orioles, Yanks Split

Tribe Drops White Sox To 4th Place With 4-1, 9-4 Victories

By The Associated Press

In spring training it was new power and added pitching strength that had the smart money riding on Chicago's defending champion White Sox in the American League pennant race. Now June is busting out all over and the Sox are busts.

The could-be sluggers aren't. Early Wynn has lost more than he has won. Bob Shaw is 4-4. Billy Pierce (3-2) has won once in the last two weeks.

In nine nightmarish days the champs have lost eight of 10, skidding from the top to fourth place.

Cleveland's second-place Indians swept a Memorial Day pair at Chicago, 4-1 and 9-4, and used ex-White Sox Bubba Phillips, Johnny Romano and Barry Latman to do it. That plunked Chicago to fourth, 3 games behind front-flying Baltimore.

The Orioles lost a game of their lead, but still have a one-game edge over Cleveland after splitting with Boston. Baltimore took the opener 7-5, then lost 12-3. New York took third place, beating Washington 3-2 after losing the first game 2-1. Kansas City belted Detroit twice, 7-6 in 11 innings and 8-2.

In the National League, Pittsburgh broke a first-place tie with San Francisco by whipping Milwaukee 8-3. The second game of the twin bill was rained out. The Giants, a half-game back, salvaged a split with the Chicago Cubs, winning 5-4 after a 2-1 defeat. Cincinnati won at Philadelphia 5-4 in 10 innings, then lost 6-1 as the last place Phillies ended their losing streak at seven. St. Louis walloped Los Angeles 15-3 in a night game.

The White Sox left 23 men on base while dropping their sixth in a row at home—where they had won their first 10. They stranded 14 in the first game, three in the seventh inning when winner Jim Perry (4-2) got Al Smith on a pop up. A four-run sixth did it for the Indians against Wynn (2-3).

In the second game the Indians walloped Shaw with six runs in the fourth inning. Latman won his first decision since the preseason trade for Herb Score with John Briggs' relief.

Rookie Ron Hansen's three-run double in the fifth inning won the opener for the Orioles. Their other four came in the first inning, two on Gene Woodling's home run off Bill Monbouquette (4-4). Chuck lights like a giant pinball machine and ejects aerial bombs when a Sox player hits a homer, is Veeck's pride and joy.

"I had a talk with Jim after the game," said Veeck. "He started out in a loud voice but ended in a soft one. If he ever throws anything against my scoreboard again, I'll put him in one of my skyrocket launchers and fire him into orbit. This, I made very clear to him."

"I don't care what or where he throws things, just as long as it's not at my scoreboard. Actually, I'm very fond of Jim. But he can go too far."

Piersall was ejected from the first game. He had stolen second in the third inning and from that vantage point was riding plate umpire Larry Knapp for calling two strikes on Harvey Kuenn. After a violent argument, second base umpire Cal Drummond thumbed him.

Piersall went to the Cleveland dugout and began throwing bats, caps and gloves onto the field. Then he trudged to the Sox dugout, found an empty sand bucket, and tossed that out before going to the dressing room.

In the second game, Piersall was the target for fans who tossed several oranges at him.

"One hit me near the ear at the end of the game," he said. "It made me mad. I had caught (Ted) Kluszewski's long fly for the last out. I just wheeled and threw the ball at the scoreboard. I wanted to hit something made of glass and break it. Someone tossed me another ball from the bull pen and I threw it, too."

"That scoreboard should only go off—if it has to go off at all—just once a game no matter how many Sox homers are hit. It's nerve wracking—all those lights flashing and those damn bombs bursting over your head."

Williams has never hidden his dislike for the Boston writers, with whom he has been feuding virtually from the first day he joined the Red Sox in 1939.

Ted emphasized that owner Tom Yawkey had not approached him about taking over as Red Sox manager.

No One Hurt As Tornado Hits Medina

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau said a wind that ripped through a section of Brunswick Monday night apparently was a small twister.

The wind flattened a garage, several trees were blown down and twisted over a distance of 1 1/2 miles. No injuries were reported. The storm brought big hailstones and ripped shingles from house roof.

A forecaster at Cleveland Hopkins Airport said information from an official observer in Brunswick indicated it was a "high funnel that dipped down to earth in one or two places."

Jack A. Werwage said he saw the garage belonging to a neighbor, Bruno Nehring, lifted into the air. The building dropped on its roof near the Nehring house.

Werwage's father, Harry, said he saw "a dark cloud with yellow underneath through the kitchen window. It looked to me as if there were two funnels dipping from it." The chimney was blown down on the Werwage house and basement windows were broken.

Another resident of the area, Harvey Dvorak, said he was away at the time, but when he got home he found his picture window shattered and pieces of glass "driven into the living room wall just like daggers."

STORE HOURS
We have kept the same store hours now for some time—9 to 5, 9 to 9 on Friday, and closed Wednesday afternoon (For rehabilitation).

Lately, however, people are becoming accustomed to these hours and have been coming in when we are open. As a result, our sales have been the best ever this year. Consequently, we are going to have to make some good business.

Many suggestions have been made as to what hours should be made as to these are so varied that they confuse a small time operator such as I—and we find ourselves keeping the same old hours.

Ohio

one boating fatality and seven miscellaneous accidental deaths.

The highway toll exceeded the pre-holiday estimate of 23 and topped last year's Memorial Day weekend toll of 22. Last year's holiday, however, was only a 54-hour period.

In terms of lives lost, Ohio recorded the worst traffic accident in the nation. It occurred near Cambridge on Memorial Day when six airmen perished as their car collided head-on with a tractor-trailer truck.

There was only one other multiple fatality traffic accident in Ohio during the weekend period which started at 6 p.m. Friday. That happened Sunday in Ashland County when a father and his 10-year-old daughter were killed as they sat in a parked car which was hit from behind by a truck.

Car-truck crashes took 11 lives in all.

A house fire Saturday in Cleveland claimed three lives—a father and two of his children.

The drowning victims included an 8-year-old Reynoldsburg boy whose bicycle skidded into a pond and a Darke County father who rescued his young son from a farm pond but couldn't make it to shore himself.

The boating victim was a 17-year-old boy who drowned in the Ohio River near Steubenville when his craft capsized.

Grange Head To Speak at Knox School

Herschel D. Newsom of Washington, D.C., national grange master, will be the guest speaker at a district grange meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Knox Local School, according to Jack Pozenel, county deputy master.

Norman Barnett of Beloit, special grange deputy, will be in charge of the program, with Chester B. Asplach of Canal Winchester, state lecturer, acting as master of ceremonies.

A discussion meeting will precede the 7th degree dinner at 4:30 p.m. with the following farm and service club speakers scheduled to talk:

Galen Greenisen of Salem, Farm Bureau; Lt. Governor G. V. Weinstock of Lisbon, Kiwanis; past district governor R. Dale Miller of Lisbon, Rotarians; Elden Groves of Salem, Rotary; G. F. McCullough of East Liverpool, Lions and Chester Alspach, granges.

A panel discussion will be held with William Morris of Columbiana as moderator. Groves and Frank Harlow of Alliance RD 4, will speak on dairying; Allen Chamberlain of Columbiana, on poultry, and Ben Weingart of Leetonia on byproducts of grain.

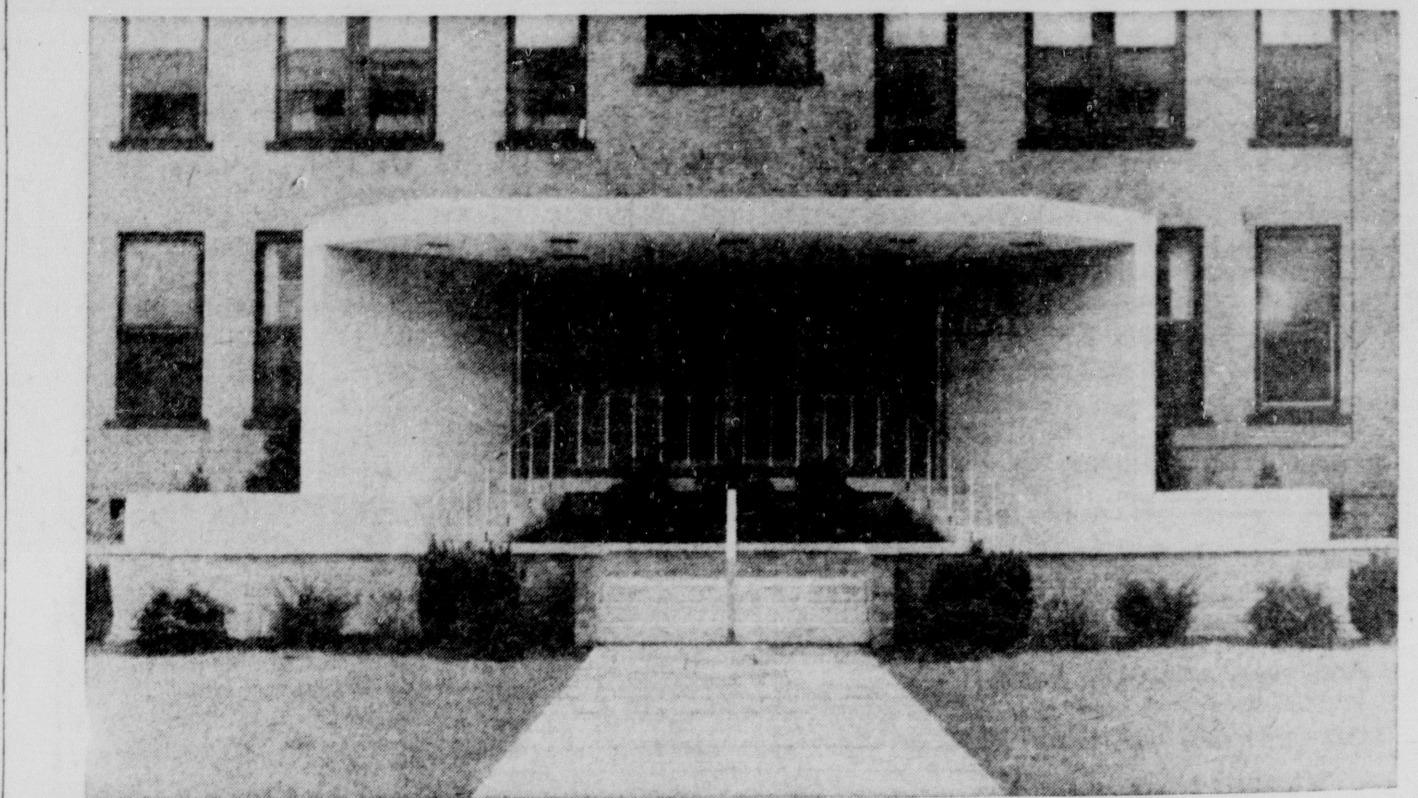

Tickets for the district dinner meeting can be secured from any grange secretary, Pozenel said.

CAP Aids Patrol In Holiday Traffic Check

Salem Composite Squadron 302 Civil Air Patrol flew an assignment for the state highway patrol Memorial Day for traffic observation in a 35-mile radius of Salem, flying out of H & E Airport, David Linn, CAP information officer, reported.

The "ceiling" being below legal limits until late afternoon, it was 6:30 p.m. before the four planes could make a reconnaissance of the area, giving the patrol a report of light to normal traffic. Conditions on the highway remained the same during the after-dark flights.

Pilots were Lemuel Anders on George Conrad, Fred Paddon, Kermit Riffle, Carl Lippitt, David Linn and Joseph Sox.

CITY HOSPITAL'S NEW ENTRANCE — This attractive new front entrance now greets visitors to Salem City Hospital. Completed in a remodeling project that was begun last fall, project is what Hospital Administrator C. J. Mosher describes as a continuing modernization of the hospital facilities. A new basement dining room was recently opened and work is expected to start soon in the remodeling of the main office lobby. In addition to the new front, patios have been constructed at either side of the building for the convenience of visitors and patients.

4 Chosen to Attend Ohio Forestry Camp

While at camp, the youngsters will learn of forest management, wood utilization, reforestation in classes and laboratory periods conducted by professional foresters and conservationists.

The camp is held annually by the Ohio Forestry Association. It promotes the interest of young people, through education in a unified multiple use of forests development of water supplies, application of sound management and development of adequate wildlife and recreational values.

Approximately 120 young people will attend.

of their regime were to be transferred by air from the war college to Yessli, Ada, an isolated Turkish naval base island 225 miles northwest of Ankara in the Sea of Marmara.

Purpose of the transfer is to minimize chances of demonstrations for or against Menderes.

Foreign governments were lining up in support of the revolutionary government by extending diplomatic recognition. The United States, Britain, Nationalist China, Pakistan and South Korea were among the first to give such recognition.

Wetzel Is Speaker At New Waterford

Clarence Wetzel, state representative from Lisbon, was the main speaker for Memorial Day Ceremonies at New Waterford Cemetery.

"With all our economic might, we must get closer to the Lord if we are to prevent another world war," Wetzel said. "He stated that another war would mark the end of civilization as we know it."

The Columbiana American Legion drill team and color guard had charge of the colors and firing squad. Music was furnished by the New Waterford band.

George Seederly presided at the program. No parade was held.

Russians Charge U.S. Planes Buzz Ships

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today charged the United States with buzzing more Russian ships.

The newspaper Vozny Transport said a U.S. Navy hydroplane two days ago flew over a Soviet icebreaker in the Bering Sea at an altitude of about 300 feet.

On May 27, it added, an American plane buzzed a Soviet steamer in the Sea of Japan.

The paper also referred to seven flights between May 23 and 25 over Soviet merchant ships in the Mediterranean Area, the Sea of Japan and the Pacific.
